

Policy for Use of the Eastern Jackson County Bar Association Membership List

The Eastern Jackson County Bar Association (hereinafter referred to as EJCBA) maintains a list of members which includes addresses, phone and email addresses. In an effort to clarify the intended use and purpose of maintaining such a list, the following guidelines shall apply:

1. Use of the list is for EJCBA purposes only. It shall be understood that maintaining the list is by the permission of the members who allow their names and contact information to be used to receive communication from EJCBA.
2. EJCBA has a responsibility to promote the Association for the betterment of the legal profession as a whole and the public at large. All legal uses of the list that promotes the legal profession as a whole and the delivery of legal services to the community shall be considered a legitimate use of the list.
3. Examples of legitimate use of the membership list are:
  - a. Announcement of EJCBA events and meetings;
  - b. Articles of interest to the members of the bar which may include educational information, rule changes, announcements from the judiciary or administrative body charged with the administration of the judicial system;
  - c. Announcement of charitable events sponsored by or promoted by EJCBA;
  - d. Announcement of professional achievement by a member;
  - e. Announcement of a member's retirement or death;
  - f. Items for sale, or lease that would be used by the membership in the practice of law.
4. Examples of prohibited uses of the membership list are:
  - a. Any announcement, invitation, or solicitation on behalf of any individual or group of individuals for political purposes.
  - b. Announcement of a social event not sponsored by the EJCBA;
  - c. Direct or indirect solicitation of money for charity, campaign donations or any other purpose not directly used for EJCBA purposes.